The Bridge TODAYDEVOTIONAL.COM

Bridges are practical for traveling over canyons or water. Without a bridge, it would be more difficult to get from one side to the other. And before we cross a bridge, we have to trust that it is strong enough.

Between God and us there is a great chasm. On one side there is God—and a world of peace, joy, health, and love. On the other side there is us—in a world of suffering, sorrow, lawlessness, war, famine, disease, and death.

We get a detailed picture of this world in Ezekiel 22. God cannot bear to let all this injustice go on. Someone - needs to "stand in the gap," act as a bridge, by which God can bring us to live in peace with him. Otherwise we are stuck on the wrong side, living in rebellion against God and heading down the road to destruction.

The wonderful news of the Bible is that Jesus Christ has come to be our mediator, to bridge the gap between us and God, to offer full life for all who trust in him as the way to God.
